

FAQs

We've created this handy list of frequently asked questions to help you get started with our book club!

Q - What is the book club?

A - Forget Me Not's book club is a new club that lets you order books from our charity shops right to your door. You can choose from a number of genres and get exclusive deals the more books you order and read!

Q - What genres are available?

A - At the moment, we are offering bundles in Horror, Thriller/Crime, Romance, Historical Fiction, Biography, Young Adult and Children's.

Q - Is this a subscription service?

A - Currently, the book club is not subscription-based. However, we are currently in the early stages of launching the book club and there is definitely a possibility for a subscription-based service at some point in the future.

Q - Are there book club meetings?

A - No. Given the current restrictions surrounding Covid-19, there are no physical meetings for our book club. However, we have a Facebook group which we encourage all members to join where you can discuss the book you're reading, make recommendations and share your love for reading with others!

Q - How much are the book bundles?

A - Our book bundles are currently priced at £9.99 for four books (and eight books for kid's bundles!) This price also includes postage and packaging!

Q - What kind of books might I receive in my bundle?

A - That depends on which genre you choose when purchasing your bundle. For a handy guide to some of our most popular authors - see our author guide here.

Q - Does the book club support charity?

A - Yes! The Forget Me Not book club raises money for Forget Me Not Children's Hospice - which means every book bundle we sell helps care for children with life-limiting conditions and their families in West Yorkshire.
